HostMilano - the fast becoming global leader in hospitality tradeshows

With less than one year to go for Host Milano's 2017 edition, bookings continue to rise, with more than 1,437 firms from 48 countries in all five continents already confirmed. Leading the list of foreign countries are Germany, Spain and the United States of America. In fact, the US has already registered an increase of 47% in companies booking their participation, when compared to the 2015 edition, with both new and returning exhibitors (Update January 2017).

Below a list of these companies, and in the following link you can also search participants registered from other countries <http://host.fieramilano.it/en/search-exhibitors>
